BOND DRIVE

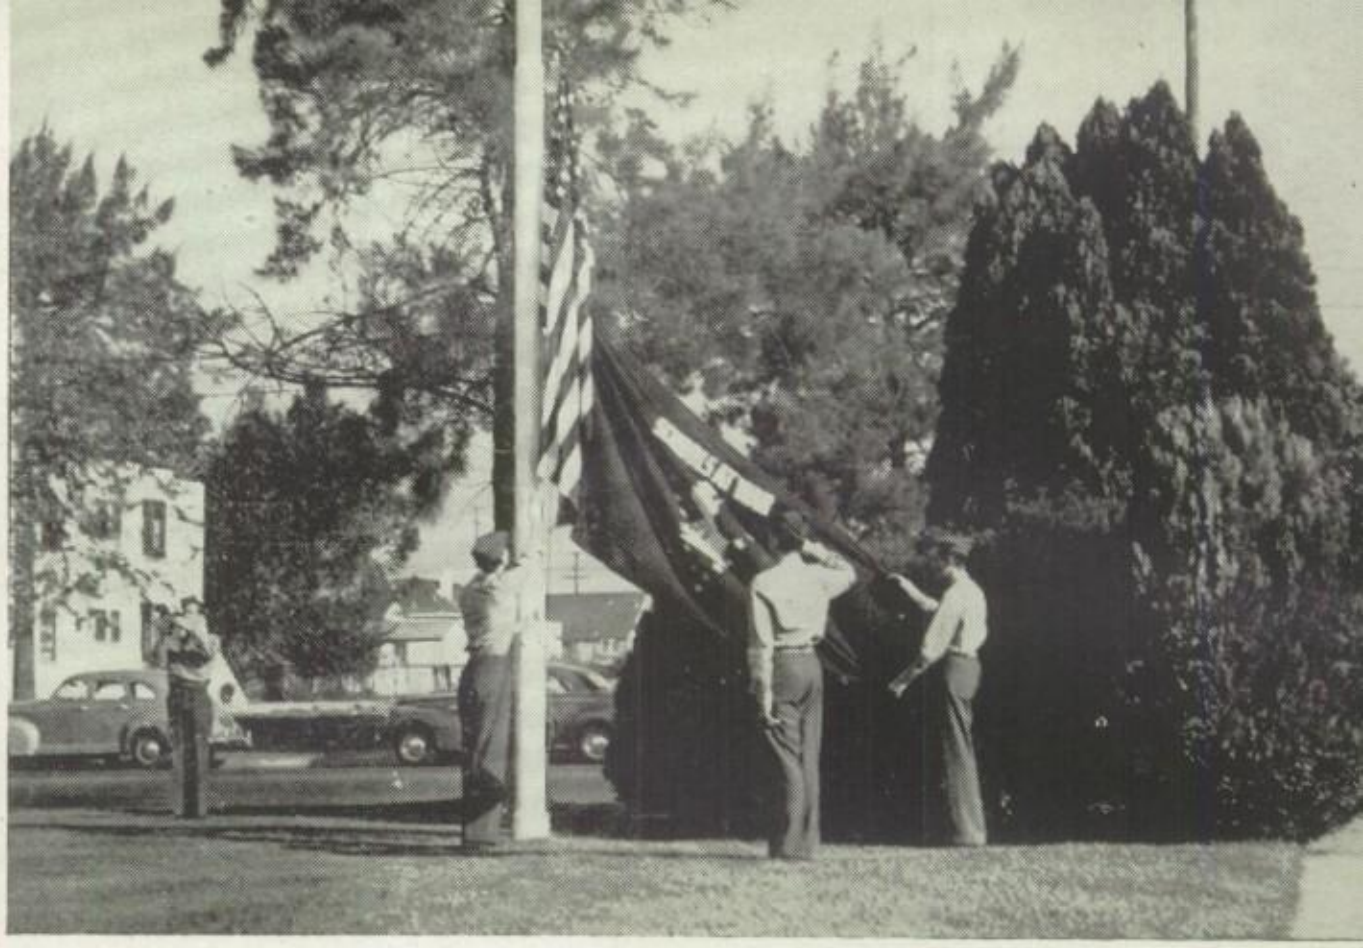
The campaign to buy a Flying Fortress to be named "The Spirit of Glendale High" was the biggest and most successful activity of the year.

The drive opened on November 15 and by February 7 the entire amount of $325,000 had been raised.

The students were enthusiastic, not only demonstrating their best school spirit but also proving a tremendous amount of patriotism.

The entire student body should be proud of its great achievement.

9:00 A. M.



The ringing of a bell at 9:00 a.m. has a special significance to the members of Glendale High School. At this time each morning the students, no matter where they may be, rise and face the west. As the bugle accompanies the raising of the flag, the students bow in silent prayer for all who have gone forth to help preserve our precious freedom.

WAR WORK

The war work campaign received as much enthusiasm as all other activities from the students. They all did their part sewing quilts, knitting, and making all kinds of useful articles, from those needed to supply kit bags for the boys overseas to games for the boys in hospitals. They may well be proud of their work.

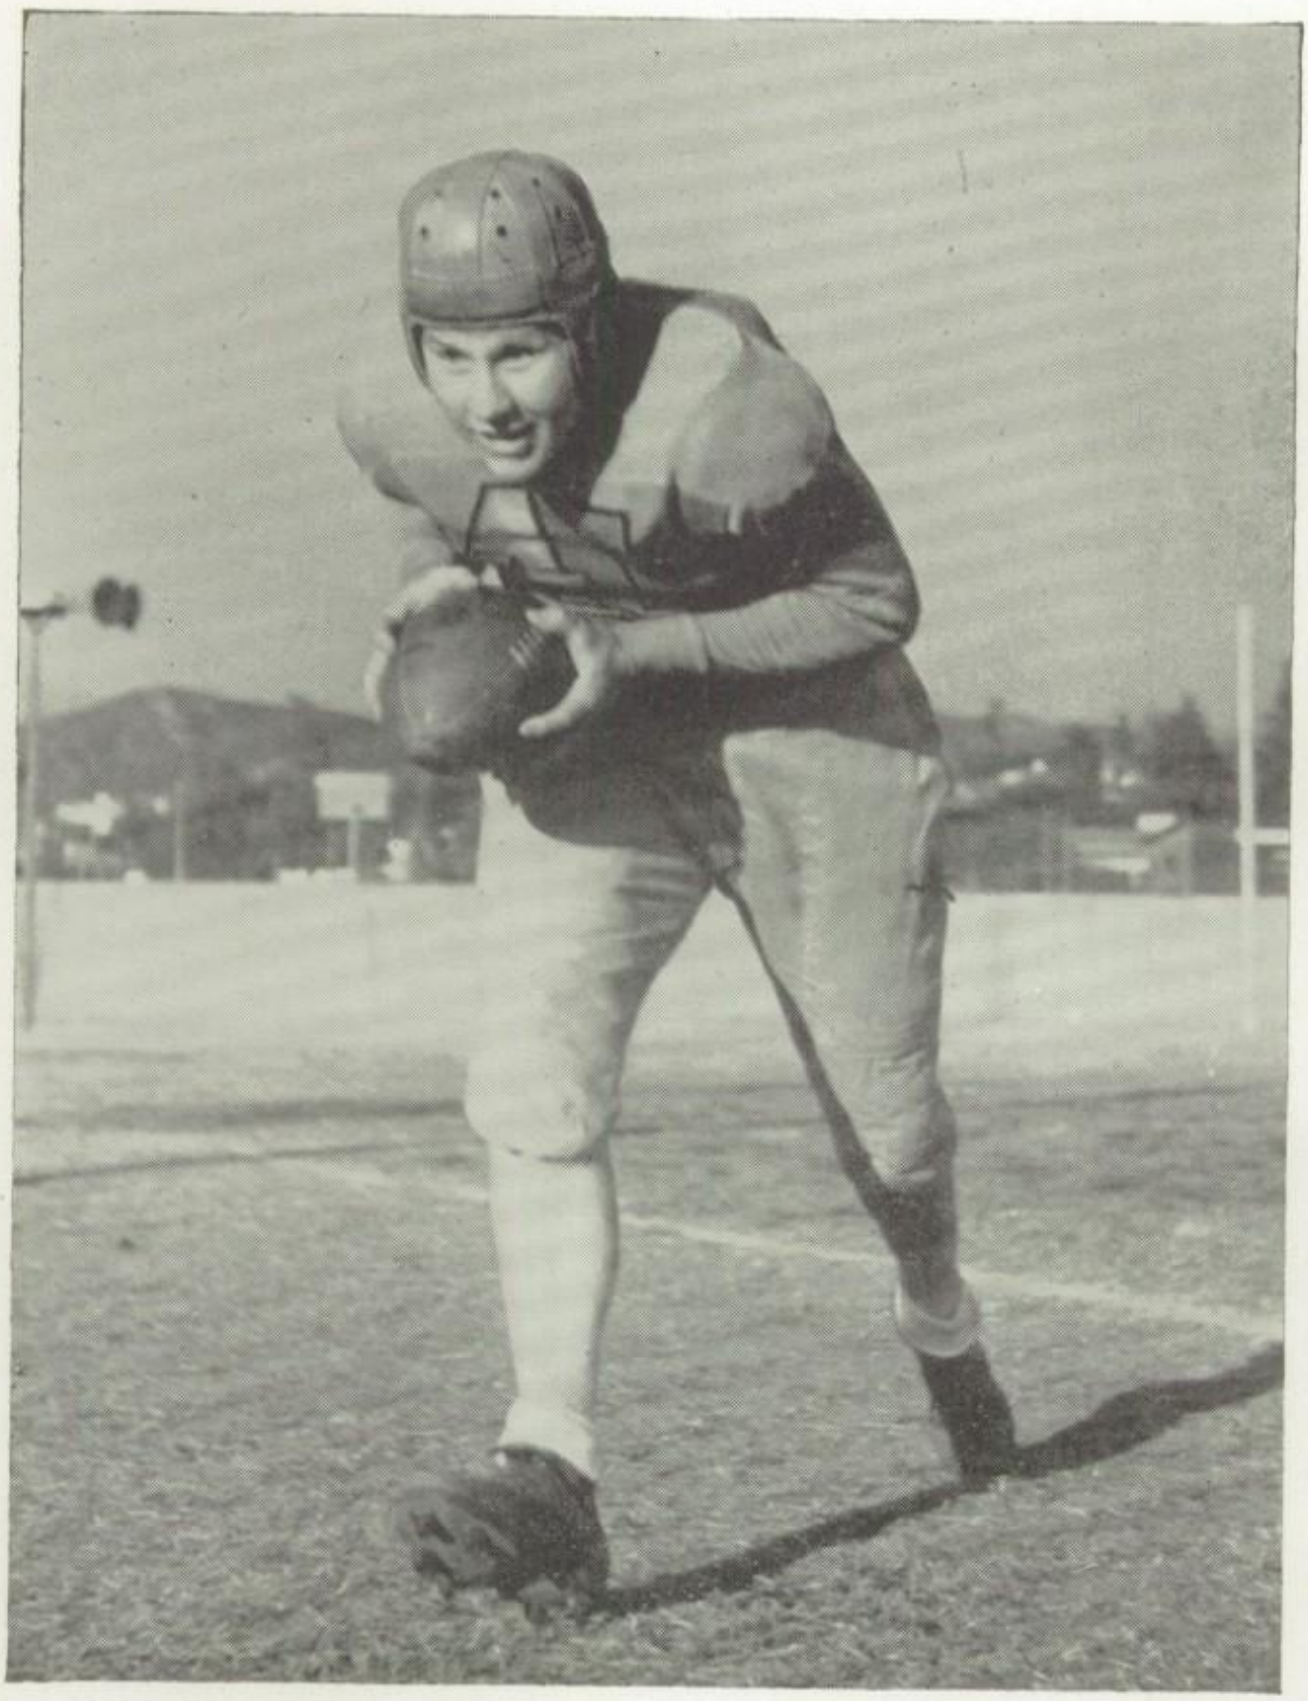
Barbara Walsh, Helen Stickell, and Elaine Willardson proved to be three of the snappiest song leaders the school has ever had. With their sparkling routines and peppy actions they had the backing of all the students and helped to carry the boys to victory.



FOOTBALL

COACH GRAF

To Coach Lon Graf, a great deal of credit goes for his tireless efforts with the varsity squad this year.

Faced with a shortage of experienced men, Coach Graf turned out a team which, although winning only two games, nevertheless reflected the superior type of coaching ability that he possesses.

In this, his second year as head mentor at Glendale High, he not only gave the fellows a great deal of valuable football experience, but in addition, his teachings of sportsmanship and team spirit were of inestimable value to them. He is truly a great coach and a credit to Glendale High School.

CAPTAIN BUSCH

A first rate football player and an all-around regular fellow, Joe Busch was well qualified to captain the varsity squad. One of three returning lettermen from last year's team, he was moved from guard to the backfield where he did a magnificent job. Calling signals from the blocking back spot, Joe was a key man in the Dynamiter outfit.

Although plagued by injuries for a good part of the season, he was in there in spite of it all most of the time, and his presence on the field, along with his expert playing and shrewd signal calling were instrumental in keeping the squad going.

VARSITY FOOTBALL

Playing a revised war time schedule, the Dynamiter football squad experienced a rather unsuccessful season, winning only two games.

Owing to transportation facilities, the usual games with Whittier, Alhambra, Keppel, Long Beach Wilson, and the traditional Thanksgiving Day contest at Santa Barbara were cancelled, and a new league composed of more immediate schools including Glendale, Hoover, South Pasadena, Pasadena J. C., and Burbank was formed.

The Nitros started off in great style by traveling to El Monte and defeating the Lions in the season starter. They exhibited rare form and dominated the field throughout the entire game.

The following week, a pigskin aggregation from Santa Monica arrived and handed the Red and Black a resounding loss in the second practice game of the season.

Defeat was in store again when Glendale traveled to South Pasadena only to bow in an extremely hard fought league opener. Both teams put out their utmost, and this combined with long runs helped to make it one of the fastest games of the year.

The next contest with Pasadena J. C. was one which saw the Dynamiters run up a total of over 200 yards as compared to 45 for the Bullpups, and then lose by one touchdown.

The annual city championship game with Hoover was held in the Rose Bowl, and the Tornados, who went on to win the league crown, proved too much for the Dynamiters, overpowering them by two touchdowns.

Glendale wound up the season in the right spirit by defeating Burbank in a bitterly contested struggle on Moyse Field.

BEE FOOTBALL

Beset by injuries and inexperience, the 1944 Bee football team wen through a very slack season, gaining one victory in six starts.

In the initial game of the season, the Blasters played host to El Monte on Moyse Field in the first night game since the dimout went into effect. From the very start, the inexperience of the Blasters showed itself, and the invaders held them scoreless.

Santa Monica taught the Blasters a costly lesson in football the following week when they traveled to the beach city.

The contest with South Pasadena saw Glendale outplay the visitors, only to be foiled by an intercepted pass, which set up the game's lone score.

The Blaster's only victory came at the expense of Pasadena the following week when they defeated the Crown City Bees on their own turf.

The Hoover game was by far the best game of the year. Glendale led by two touchdowns at the half, only to have the Purples come back fighting mad and end up on top by one tally.

In the season's finale, the Blasters met defeat at the hands of Burbank.

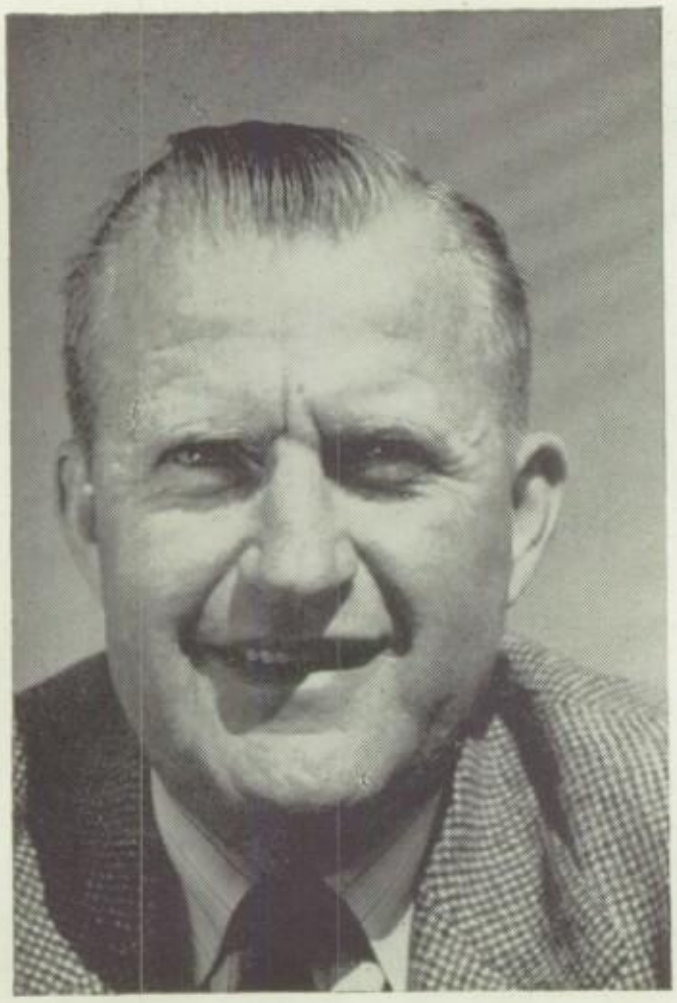
BASKETBALL



COACH GAINES

Switching from football where he produced a championship Bee team last season, Coach Jack Gaines assumed leadership of the A and B basketball squads this year, and guided his varsity hoopsters to a league championship. In addition to winning the league, his boys also went through their season without dropping a game, for a record of 12 straight victories.

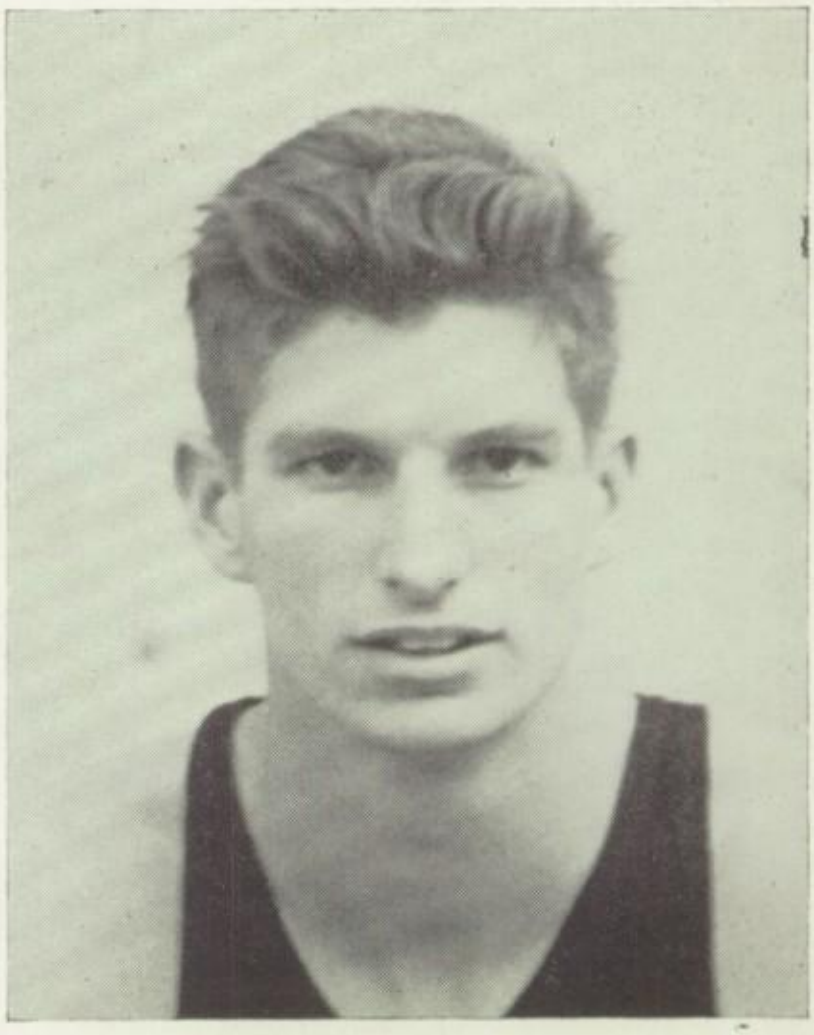
The exhibits of smooth playing and teamwork produced by both squads whenever they took the floor were evidence enough of Jack Gaines' high ability as a basketball coach, and his teachings and knowledge of the game can assure Glendale High many winning teams in the future.

CAPTAIN PETERMAN

The only returning varsity letterman on the squad, Captain Bob Peterman, was not only a standout on offense, but also considered by many as one of the best defensive men in the league. From his guard position Bob was responsible for breaking up many opposing plays which seemed to be impossible to stop.

His most spectacular performance occurred in a game with P.J.C. when, after being knocked down extremely hard, he came back to sink two fast shots and win the game for the Dynamiters, 26-25.

An exceptionally fine player, Bob was one of the most consistent men on the team and a great inspiration to his teammates.



LEAGUE CHAMPIONS

Without a doubt, one of the best basketball teams ever to perform for Glendale High, the 1944 varsity squad rolled over all opposition to capture the League Crown. Throughout the entire campaign, which consisted of playing each of four league schools twice, plus four pre-season practice games, they were undefeated, making a total of twelve straight victories.

The smooth operating Dynamiters had no equals when it came to speed and team work, and their skillful ball-handling was a sight worth seeing.

After taking two games from Verdugo Hills by large margins, the Dynamiters' official season began in a practice engagement with Roosevelt High of Los Angeles. Glendale dispatched the Rough Riders with little trouble, and then handed the same treatment to an invading Kepple team the following week.

In the first League contest they played host to a highly tauted Burbank squad, and defeated them by 12 points.

South Pasadena was next on the list, and the Tigers also bowed before Glendale's powerful attack.

The game with P. J. C. will long be remembered by virtue of Captain Bob Peterman's feat of sinking two foul shots in the closing seconds, to give the Nitros a one point margin of victory.

Glendale ended the first round of play by defeating Hoover in a 26-25 thriller. This time it was Johnny Mason who contributed the winning basket.

In the second round, the Dynamiters nosed out a fighting Burbank quintet by one basket, and then, gaining momentum, they polished off South Pasadena and P. J. C. by overwhelming scores.

Playing in rare form, they took on the Purples in the final contest of the season and trounced them easily to end the year undefeated.

BEE BASKTBALL

Starting the season in fine style, the Blasters won five of their first six encounters, and seemed to be well on the way to a league championship. However, when the second round began, they lost the winning touch and dropped each of the four remaining contests.

They opened by trouncing Roosevelt and Mark Keppel in practice tilts. The initial league match saw the Blasters submit to a fast moving Burbank quintet.

The following week they made up for their mistake by defeating South Pasadena, and then, still going strong, they added the P. J. C. Bullpups to their list.

In a speedy contest that had the fans on their feet much of the time, the Broadway lightweights nosed out Hoover.

They entered the second round tied for the league lead, only to have their chances of taking the crown ruined by four consecutive defeats.

TRACK

COACH DeMANDEL

To coach one track squad is a big job in itself, but to handle three teams at the same time demands a mentor of exceptional ability. Since 1939, Ranier De Mandel has had charge of the A, B, and C track teams, and during these years the quality of the track men he has produced is evidence of his ability as a track coach.

Co-Captains Roger Smythe and Del Smith were both top performers in their respective events, Smythe in the high and low hurdles and Smith in the pole vault, relay and 100 yard dash. They both enjoyed undefeated records in their specialties, Roger in the highs and Del in the pole vault.

LEAGUE CHAMPIONS

Possessing a number of top-notch performers, the 1944 Varsity track squad had a very successful season, dropping but one meet in ten starts. In doing so, they captured the league title, and at the time of this writing, were a strong threat in the C.I.F. finals.

To start with, Glendale trounced Montebello in the season opener. The following meet resulted in a tie with a fighting Inglewood squad. The Nitros then captured an impressive 59-36 win over the U.S.C. Frosh. They collected their next victories over Alhambra and Mark Kepple in a triangle meet, and then, in a final warm-up fracas before the start of the league season, crushed a cinder delegation from Loyola.

South Pasadena was the first league opponent to bow before the Dynamiters' potent cinder men. Next on the list was P.J.C., who met a similar fate.

With two league victories to their credit, the Nitros took on Burbank and annexed their third loop win. Glendale's lone setback came at the hands of Hoover, in a meet that saw the Tornadoes at their best. However the Dynos avenged themselves by outpointing their cross-town rivals in the championship meet.

LEAGUE CHAMPIONS

Under the expert guidance of Jack Gaines who took over George Sperry's duties as baseball coach, the Nitro Horsehiders experienced one of their most successful seasons in many years.

Aided by nearly a full squad of lettermen from last season, the Dynamiters fielded one of the smoothest working outfits to be found in any high school league.

Special credit goes to Don Bedford and Chuck Clark who made up what was without a doubt one of the finest batteries in the circuit. As a pitcher, Bedford exhibited amazing control, and his record stands as evidence of his ability. Clark was also a standout as catcher, and his ability along this line made him a great help to the squad.

At press time, the squad had suffered but one league defeat, and, holding down first place, had but two games left against Hoover to win in order to clinch the crown.

COACH GAINES

Taking over head coaching duties of the baseball squad in the absence of George Sperry who is now with the Red Cross, Coach Jack Gaines was well on his way to a league championship with his baseball squad when this was being written. Earlier in the year, Coach Gaines led the Varsity Basketball squad through an undefeated season, and he seems to have transferred his winning touch to the baseball team.

Captain Keith White has played baseball at Glendale for three years, in addition to playing football. His sportsmanship and team spirit made him the ideal one to lead the 1944 Dynamiters.

C. I. F. CHAMPIONS

A real powerhouse this year, the Nitro netmen swept over all opposition to win the league crown without losing a match.

Boasting seven returning lettermen, the Nitros started off the season with a series of practice matches and were victorious in all but one of them. This lone defeat was inflicted by Beverly Hills. However, from there on out, the Bombers finished all of their games including the league matches without a setback.

At press time, the netsters, by virtue of their league championship, were entered in the race for the Southern California championship.

Team members were Emery Jones, Bill Huested, Bill Kinsel, Heath Shroeder, Ken Hayes, Dwight Tudor, Martin Veselich, Dick Haynes, Bob Moore, and Jack Biggs.

ORATORICAL

Presented with such feeling and sincerity that it brought tears to the eyes of her listeners, Mary Geoghegan gave the prize-winning address at the thirty-fifth annual oratorical contest.

She brought glory to the class of 1944 with her speech titled "America's Challenge."

The senior class also received first place in the class spirit division with Jeff Elmendorf and Pat Shaver leading their class to victory.

The junior class claimed the title of winner of the tableaux which illustrated Sandy Sapin's speech "Religion Unrationed."

Bob Vollmer represented the sophomore class speaking on "Youth—the Fighters of Today; the Leaders and Builders of Tomorrow."
